

This application is to obtain a Marriage Certificate for individuals who were married in British Columbia.

Please fill in this application on your computer, print it out, and sign in the two (2) required places. You may then fax, scan and email, or mail your application to Canada Certificates. Our fax number, street address, and email can be found on the final page of this application.

Canada Certificates is not a government agency. Canada Certificates assists individuals in their orders of birth, marriage and death certificates. All certificates are issued by the appropriate government agency.

Please check over the information carefully; any errors will be reproduced in the certificate or may cause delays in processing.
